Athletics Compliance & Policies

Non-Discrimination Statement

Stone Ridge Christian is committed to providing a safe and inclusive environment for all students. The school prohibits discrimination, harassment, intimidation, and bullying based on race, color, national origin, ethnicity, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender, gender identity, or any other protected characteristic.

This commitment applies to all areas of school life, including athletics, and ensures that all students have equal access to opportunities and resources.

Equal Opportunity in Athletics

Stone Ridge Christian is dedicated to ensuring equitable access to athletic participation, facilities, coaching, and resources for all students. Programs are designed and operated in compliance with state and federal laws, including Title IX, to promote fairness and inclusion across all sports.

Sportsmanship & Code of Conduct

Stone Ridge Christian and its athletic programs follow the principles established by the CIF Sac-Joaquin Section promoting sportsmanship, integrity, and respect.

All student-athletes, coaches, and spectators are expected to:

- Demonstrate respect for opponents, officials, and teammates
- Exhibit fair play and integrity in all competitions
- Refrain from discriminatory or disrespectful behavior
- Represent the school with class both on and off the field of play

Failure to uphold these standards may result in disciplinary action.

Reporting Concerns

Students or families who experience or witness discrimination, harassment, or violations of these policies are encouraged to report concerns to school administration. All reports will be taken seriously and addressed promptly.

Title IX Compliance

Stone Ridge Christian complies with all applicable federal and state laws, including Title IX, which prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex in education programs and activities, including athletics.

Questions or concerns regarding Title IX compliance may be directed to the school administration.
